

Make a difference with Greenpeace

Greenpeace is the world's largest independent campaigning organization. We use creative communication and peaceful protest to expose global environmental issues and organize the grassroots people power it takes to create change. We've been around for over 45 years and have close to 3 million members in more than 55 countries. We work on campaigns to save endangered species, protect our oceans, stop deforestation, fight climate change and so much more. Right now, Greenpeace USA is working in a coalition with other 50 other non-profits to defend our democracy. We're standing up to the Trump administration and his army of climate deniers and CEO's for environmental, social, economic and racial justice.

We're hiring a diverse, fun-loving, hard-working Frontline team

We are currently looking for passionate people with good communication skills to join our Frontline team. Frontline is the public face of Greenpeace. Frontline representatives get out in the community, talk to people face-to-face about our campaigns and inspire people to take action with Greenpeace. Every day, we harness people power to raise funds, educate our communities and build our membership base. Our team's objective is to increase the financial strength and worldwide impact of Greenpeace by recruiting members to give monthly donations. Greenpeace does not accept money from government, political parties or corporations, so our members fund our fight. In addition to raising funds, our Frontline offices are the local hubs of Greenpeace activity in their area, where staff engage volunteers in our campaigns at the grassroots level.

Our commitment to Diversity & Inclusion

Greenpeace challenges the systems of power and privilege that destroy the environment and place disproportionate burdens on vulnerable communities. As Greenpeace, we know from nature that diversity is essential to life on the planet and success in our organization. We welcome, value and rely on a diversity of people, cultural experiences and perspectives. We learn from one another. Through our campaigning, we create solutions that promote environmental sustainability rooted in social justice.

If you are over the age of 18, enthusiastic about building grassroots power, and have great people skills, call or apply on line-- and one of our hiring managers will contact you!
